

FREE DOWNLOAD

What to Do After an Arrest:

A Step-by-Step Bail Bond Guide from Bail Bond Girl

Step 1: Stay Calm and Gather Information

- Get the full name and date of birth of the person arrested
 - Ask where they are being held (jail name & city)
 - If possible, find out their booking number and charges
-

Step 2: Contact a Trusted Bail Bond Agent

Call Bail Bond Girl 24/7: (209) 571-2245 - We'll verify the bail amount and eligibility - We explain all costs and requirements upfront—no hidden fees

Step 3: Understand Your Options

You have two choices: 1. Pay the full bail amount to the court (refundable if all court dates are met) 2. Use a bail bond agent and pay a percentage of the bail (usually 10%)

Bail Bond Girl offers: - 20% discounts for qualified applicants - Flexible payment plans - Fast, remote approval process - English and Spanish-speaking agents

Step 4: Complete Paperwork

- We'll send forms electronically—sign from your phone or computer
 - We'll explain your responsibilities as a cosigner (indemnitor)
 - All information is kept 100% confidential
-

Step 5: Release and Next Steps

- Once paperwork is complete and payment is arranged, we post the bond
 - Release times vary by jail but are usually within a few hours
 - Defendant must attend all court appearances as required
-

Cosigner Responsibilities Checklist:

- Make sure the defendant appears in court
 - Keep in contact with Bail Bond Girl
 - Notify us of any change in contact info
-

Red Flags to Watch Out For:

- Agents who promise "free bail"
 - Agencies with unclear or hidden fees
 - No license number provided (Always check!)
-

About Bail Bond Girl

Angela Garcia – CA License #1840943

Bail Bond Girl – CA License #1840462

Serving Modesto, Stanislaus County, and all of California

Website: www.bailbondgirl.org

Phone: (209) 571-2245

Open 24/7 – Bilingual – Fast, Honest, Reliable

Download. Print. Be Prepared. This guide is your resource for navigating an arrest with clarity and confidence.

This document is for informational purposes only and does not constitute legal advice.